

JOIN US AT THE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE FORESTS IN WOMEN'S HANDS

YES, WE DO FORESTRY

The main aim of the international conference is to:

- show the role of women in the forestry sector today
- present novel methods of empowering women to be more visible in the forestry sector
- present good practice examples
- and to demonstrate how women can be more connected and also organised at the international level

The conference is organised by the Fem4Forest partnership and will bring together speakers from different countries and professions. We want to make space for discussions and active participation. We believe that learning from each other makes us stronger, and we would like to share our experiences with you.

Female actors are bringing an improvement to the forest business.
